Job Description – Housekeeper

Report to: Restaurant Manager

Hours: 35 hours per week, working any 5 days Monday – Sunday.

Salary: Total Package from £24,000 including Tronc

Location: The General Tarleton, Ferrensby, Knaresborough, HG5 0PZ

Overview

We're on the search for a hardworking, quality driven housekeeper and breakfast assistant with previous experience in a similar role to join our team at The General Tarleton, Ferrensby; our new pub with fifteen rooms opening this Summer.

Reporting to the Restaurant Manager, this role is imperative for contributing to the smooth-running of day-to-day housekeeping and breakfast operation at The General Tarleton, delivering a high-quality experience for all guests staying in our rooms.

The ideal candidate will be experienced in working in a fast-paced, dynamic environment, with impeccable attention to detail and excellent knowledge of housekeeping systems, standards and processes within a high-end establishment.

The Role & Responsibilities

- Ensure all bedrooms and public areas are serviced to our usual five-star standard ahead of thorough daily inspections.
- Support the Restaurant Manager in ensuring the effective management of housekeeping inventory, including laundry requirements and stock levels.
- Ensuring compliance with health and safety legislation and licensing law.
- Assist in the service of our high-quality breakfast offering whilst providing warm and friendly hospitality to our guests.

The Person

- Impeccable attention-to-detail
- Excellent communication and organisational skills.
- A friendly and approachable manner.
- A genuine passion for the hospitality industry and guest experience.
- Ability to work independently and as part of a team.

The benefits of working with us

Our people are the most important part of our business, and we provide a fantastic place to grow and develop your skills with good work/life balance. We offer:

- Staff discounts across Jeopardy Hospitality and The Tommy Banks Group
- Career development and internal and external training opportunities.
- The opportunity to work in a growing and exciting business that invests in its people.
